NORDIC TEXTILE MEETING IN BORÅS 6.3 2021 - TALKING HANDS

Online “Talking hands”

All members of NTA: Please join the Instagram exhibition “Talking Hands”! How do you relate to your hands in your textile practise?

Email a photo to nordictextileart@gmail.com of your hand working with textiles. Describe in 2 - 3 sentences how you in the photo relate to the title and the concept "Talking Hands". Write in your first language or in English. We will post everyone's hands on NTA's Instagram, Facebook and website with name and text.

For the year 2021 we focus on the language of our hands and what they will communicate. How far can the discussion go when there is no spoken language present? Talking hands - what are they saying?

Borås 6. 3 2021. Location: (online) The Swedish Museum of Textiles,

The Textile Museum of Sweden is a national actor and permanent exhibition arena for art in the expanded field of textiles, a dynamic place that aims to become the Nordic region's leading museum with focus on fashion, design, art, textile heritage and innovative textiles. With a progressive can-do attitude, the museum raises interesting topics and issues in a contemporary context and out into the public debate.

As an obvious partner to NTA, we offer a stimulating and attractive environment as well as a desire to become a source of inspiration and information through exhibitions and through the large museum collection that contains everything from textile samples to classic design.

Temporary exhibitions: Sound to wear – klädd i ljud, Fashion Exposed – 100 years of Swedish fashion photography Permanent exhibitions: Textile Power - Textil kraft, Textile Chock - Textilchock.

Participation in the annual meeting online please let us know, deadline March 4th. Last date for application to come to Borås to the Nordic Textile Meeting is February 22.
